50X1-HUM

A team of three inspectors visited all the houses in Cesky Krumlov (N 49/Q 84) in February 1953. One of the inspectors was a housing officer, the other a contractor and the third a specialist of some sort. The team inspected basements and, whenever one suitable for an air raid shelter was found, the manager of the house was ordered to set up a team of three people, one fire warden, one man unfit for military service and one nurse, to be assigned to that shelter. Orders were given to keep these basements in good condition. A list was made of all basements in town suitable for use as air raid shelters.
